

GENOA - The Proud

1st day: late in the morning arrival in Genoa, in the area of the ancient harbour, to visit the Aquarium. The Aquarium of Genoa is located on two-storey Big Blue Ship and it is one of the main Italian cultural attractions, thanks to its 70 tanks And more than 6000 animals. By visiting it, a stirring journey through unbelievable underwater realm scenarios takes place: from Oceanic coral reefs to spectacular Mediterranean seabed, from the Caribbean sea to under ice sea life of the Antarctic. Seals, dolphins, penguins, sharks, fish of every shapes and colors (in some tanks it is even possible to stroke some of them) attend visitors all along the pathway to discover the underwater realm, enriched with curious and strange shapes. Lunch in a restaurant. During the afternoon, visit to the Museum of the Sea (Galata Museum), the biggest marine museum of the Mediterranean Sea, where it is displayed the evolution of the Harbour and the City from the Dark Ages, trying to explain what the sea had represented for Genoa. To be more interesting and constructive, it uses a multimedia and interactive approach. Main attraction is the exposure of the reconstruction of a "Galea Genovese" (galley) from the 17th Century, a 40 meter length and 9 meter high boat. At the end of the visit, it will be possible to walk through Porto Antico (the ancient harbour) to discover other attractions of the exposure (extra charge for: Biosphere, Bigo etc.) Dinner and overnight stay in hotel.

2nd day: breakfast in hotel. During the morning, guided tour of the city: starting from characteristic narrow streets of the Old Town, aka "carrugi", where it is possible to see the old and pretty churches, with their particular black-and-white façade, such as the Cathedral of San Lorenzo; the small places; the loading area with Sottoripa and San Giorgio Palace; the beautiful Via Garibaldi, visible sign of the Golden Century of Genovesi and the only street in the world for the town-planning concept, which has inspired it and the magnificent of its palaces; Piazza Fontane Marose; Via Balbi; Piazza De Ferrari with the astonishing Palazzo Ducale; Carlo Felice Theatre; the worldly Via XX Settembre with its shops under porches.
