

CHRISTMAS MARKETS IN PROVENCE

December 2008

1st day: free lunch on the way. In the afternoon arrival in Aix en Provence, capital of historical Provence, university city, artistic city with an extremely rich architectural heritage, its astonishing countryside landscape, which has inspired, during the whole of his life, the famous pieces of art by Paul Cézanne. Possibility to walk through Christmas markets, to discover "Christmas' Saints" (typical clay statues of Provençal Christmas crèche). Check-in in hotel, dinner and overnight stay in hotel.

2nd day: breakfast in hotel. During the morning, departure to Avignon. The city of Popes, which was awarded as European capital of culture of the new millennium. Avignon is a small jewel, mounted among its bastions. During Christmas celebration, Avignon hosts a Christmas market, with about fifty craftsmen and tradesmen, who colonized the town of chalets and propose their Provence products: statues, tissues, jewels, Christmas decorations, gifts and sweets. In the town hall, folkloristic groups perform songs and fashion show. Lunch in an ancient palace, located on an island, at the entrance of Avignon, where it would be possible to taste traditional thirteen desserts. After lunch, meeting with tour guide to visit the city. Return to hotel, typical Provençal dinner and overnight stay in hotel.

3rd day: breakfast in hotel. Departure to visit the medieval city of Baux de Provence; a real medieval fortress, located on the rocky spur in the heart of Provence. Return home and end of services.
