

SAN GIMIGNANO AND SIENA

1st day: departure with bus to Siena. Mysteries and legends surrounds the origin of the city of Siena, built by either Etruscans, Gallic or Romans. The most famous myth tells about Senio and Aschio, Remo's sons, who in the 8th Century BC, fled from Rome, to escape from their cruel uncle Romolo, taking with them the famous statue of the she-wolf feeding the twins. Once they reached river Tressa, they built a castle and named it "Castelvecchio", around which Siena should have originated. Meeting with tour guide and sightseeing of the city. Lunch in a restaurant in Siena. Late in the afternoon arrival in hotel, check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

2nd day: breakfast and departure to San Gimignano. The town rises on a hill (m 334), with its two towers' profile and stands out on Val d'Elsa. It had a great development during the Middle Ages, thanks to "Via Francigena", which crossed the town. Meeting with tour guide and sightseeing of the city. Lunch in a restaurant. Late in the afternoon departure and end of services.
